THE 4-H ALBERTA REFERENCE GUIDE

Each 4-H Club in Alberta is an individual entity and is responsible for governing itself within the policies and procedures established by 4-H Alberta. The 4-H Alberta Reference Guide has replaced all non governance related policies and procedures as of October 1, 2022. This is reflected on the website.

This Reference Guide is to provide operational processes, procedures, and definitions for province-wide consistency when required. Each section of this document has contact information associated with it for feedback or if questions arise about that section.

This document is best used online by finding what you are looking for in the table of contents. Click on the section you want in the table of contents and it will take you there. This document will be updated regularly with current information and resources for the community. Please use the online version or check back to ensure the content is most up to date. The “last edited” date in the footnotes will be updated when changes are made. See the bottom of each section for who to contact with questions or comments. Always reach out to your Area Coordinator for more information as well. If there are any broken links or province wide information that you think is missing from this guide, please contact Bridget Mahaffey at bridget.mahaffey@4hab.com.

WHO IS THE 4-H ALBERTA COMMUNITY?

The 4-H Alberta Community includes everyone involved in 4-H Alberta. From the youngest Cleaver at 6 years old to the oldest volunteer lending a hand, this community is from all over Alberta, both in rural and urban areas. Some are new to 4-H and some have been a part of 4-H for 4 generations. Our amazing volunteers are farmers, auto mechanics, teachers, psychologists, police officers, ranchers, and so much more, and all are ready to help children experience new things and learn. This community is inspired and motivated by young people ready to dive in head first and live up to the 4-H motto, Learn To Do By Doing. Join 4-H today.

Members

Members are youth aged 6-20 and are divided into four different age groups, determined by their age on December 31 of the current club year. At the beginning of each new club year, members will be registered in the group according to the age they will be on or before December 31 of that same year. For example, a member will be 11 at the beginning of the club year in October, but will turn 12 on December 31 so will be placed in the age group that includes 12 year old members.

Members can become leaders or volunteers when they are 18 but they cannot be both a member and a leader/volunteer in the same year. An exception to this is our Youth Leaders.

Cleaver Kids: 6-8 years old

Junior Member: 9-11 years old

Intermediate Member: 12-14 years old

Senior Member: 15-20 years old

Cleaver Kids

Cleaver Kids introduce 4-H to six to eight year olds. Cleaver Kids are a great way to engage the whole family. Cleaver Kids are an active group that focus on four areas of skill development through hands-on learning at their own age appropriate level, while being part of a 4-H Club. Cleaver Kids programming may differ from club to club based on volunteer resources and skills of Cleaver Kids. A great place to learn more is the Cleaver Kids Quick Reference Guide found here:

<https://www.4hab.com/cleaver-kids/>

Cleaver Kids Skills Development:

1. Developing new friendships.
2. Creating a sense of belonging to the club and community.
3. Developing listening skills and abilities to express themselves.
4. Learning to set goals, track progress, and celebrate achievements.

Member Requirements

There are five provincial requirements for 4-H Members aged 9-20. These requirements should be achieved within your club and while completing your project(s). The requirements reset each year.

1. Communication Activity

Communicating effectively and with confidence is one of the most valuable skills gained through 4-H. The ability to speak, with and in front of others, with ease is something that past and present 4-H members attribute to their 4-H communications experience.

- Each 4-H member must do one Communication Activity per club:
 - Must be prepared by the member
 - Must be presented to a 4-H group
 - Must be at least three minutes in length
- Types of Communication Activities:
 - Competitive Route - club competition, with the potential to move on to district, regional, and/or provincial competitions
 - Prepared Speech
 - Presentation
 - Non-Competitive Route - some examples below. There are many ways of fulfilling this requirement. Speak with your leader for more options.
 - Emceeing a 4-H function or activity.

- Giving formal introductions and thank yous to guest speakers.
- Presenting a report on club activities.
- Facilitating a project workshop

Communication Tools

Reach out to your Area Coordinator if you have questions about this topic. For comments about this section specifically (e.g. changes) please contact Pam Gitzel at pam.gitzel@4hab.com

2. 70% Participation

All members must achieve 70% participation through attendance and involvement in your 4-H Club approved programming (The Club Program Plan).

- Club approved programming can include:
 - Club Meetings
 - Club Activities/Club Events
 - Club Workshops
 - Project Meetings
 - Project Activities/Project Events
 - Project Workshops
 - District and or regional activities designated as ‘Club’ activities
- Discussed & determined by your club membership
 - Contain ‘mandatory’ & ‘optional’ programming
 - Voted on after collaboration, discussion, review and agreement
 - Clubs should have mid-year check in to ensure members are on track to meet the 70% Participation
 - Provide options for members who are struggling to meet the 70%
 - Options can be discussed and included at the start of the year or part way through the year but membership should be in agreement with decisions

Reach out to your Area Coordinator if you have questions about this topic. For comments about this section specifically (e.g. changes) please contact Crystal Dechaine at crystal.dechaine@4hab.com

3. Record Books

As a member requirement, members must complete a record book per project.

What are Record Books?

Record Books are available for every project in 4-H Alberta. They are a living document in which you record your project expenses, project activities, club activities and thoughts about your year. Record Books are available in a hard copy, downloadable off the website, or fillable on the website.

Online Record Books

Go to the Project Resources section for more information.

Why do we need to complete Record Books?

Accurate and complete financial records can help you make an informed decision - whether it's to keep your project as a hobby, or try to make money doing it! Reviewing your record books from last year may help you determine a way to reduce expenses and/or increase revenues. These record books also document all of your activities with 4-H throughout the year and will help you keep track of your requirements as well as reflect on what you have learned and how you have grown.

How are Record Books marked?

There are recommended project marking guidelines in record books. Club leaders should review record books and how they are marked at the beginning of the year at the club and project levels with all members. Some clubs will follow these guidelines, others may assign a complete/incomplete status. If your district or region has a competition, please read those guidelines for their specific rules.

Do I have to complete every page in the Record Book?

Work with your club leader to determine which pages are required for your project. You may be directed to "remove" some pages.

BEWARE! Removing some pages may make you ineligible to compete in district or regional record book or portfolio competitions. If you plan on competing in these events, please review rules and guidelines related to those competitions before removing pages in your record book.

What are the parts of a Record Book?

A record book contains information about you, your club and project.

Record book formatting may vary among projects. Some may be all in one book or consist of two parts:

- Base Book - this is all about YOU! Filling this in gives you a historical document that you can look back on when you are older. You only need to fill this out once per year.
- Project Inserts - these pages identify project specific information.

Reach out to your Area Coordinator if you have questions about this topic. For comments about this section specifically (e.g. changes) please contact Connie-Lyne Harder at connie-lyne.harder@4hab.com

4. Community Service

As a member requirement, a member must complete a club-approved community service activity.

As a 4-H member, you pledge to use your head, heart, hands and health to serve your club, community, country and world. Community service creates a greater appreciation of the people and organizations that make a community work.

To qualify as community service, the activity cannot be of financial benefit to the club, unless all funds raised are donated to a charitable cause.

4-H Alberta strongly encourages clubs to choose a Community Service Activity (or activities) that involves members giving their personal time and energy in the service of their community. Determine a suitable activity as a club - one that requires ACTION by the members as a group rather than just a cash or food item donation.

As a 4-H club, you will discuss and decide on the volunteer roles you would like to play, some examples include, but are not limited to:

- Volunteering at a food bank
- Helping host a community dinner
- Tree planting at a local school
- Spending time with seniors in a retirement home
- Bringing your well trained canines to a retirement home or youth program

Reach out to your Area Coordinator if you have questions about this topic. For comments about this section specifically (e.g. changes) please contact Brenda Murdock at brenda.murdock@4hab.com

5. Achievement Day

This is your chance to shine! At the end of your 4-H year, 4-H members get a chance to showcase their projects and share them with their family, friends and even members of the public. It is a great way to show your pride in all of your hard work and wrap up your project.

Members must participate in an Achievement Day for each club in which they belong. Each project should identify their own specific Achievement Day expectations. Think about how you can get the best mileage for recognizing and rewarding each member and each project.

Achievement Days look different in every 4-H Region, District and Club. Members are to plan and organize Achievement Day with the support and guidance of their 4-H leaders as needed. Discuss as a club how you would like this day to be, and together you can make it happen!

Reach out to your Area Coordinator if you have questions about this topic. For comments about this section specifically (e.g. changes) please contact Marisa Mellon at marisa.mellon@4hab.com

Members in Good Standing

Being a 4-H Member is about having fun, making friends, learning new things, and so much more. A member in good standing completes 4-H member requirements annually, attends club meetings, finds an enriching project, and is involved in the community. They understand processes and if they have questions they check out the resources listed below for answers or ask their leaders for support.

To be in Good Standing, a Member must:

- Abide by the Code of Conduct and processes outlined in the 4-H Alberta Reference Guide
- Abide by the Program Agreement on the Online Registration System
- Be registered in at least one club and be aligned with their constitution

- Ensure all fees are paid
- Meet the Member Requirements
- Complete all required forms and information on the Online Registration System
- Be in a Club that is in Good Standing

Good standing status is upheld by the list and process below. Payment of project sales cannot be withheld for any reason. Please see Member Payments for more information.

If members are not in good standing:

- Members will not be eligible for scholarships.
- Members will not be able to participate in programs, club events, project sales, etc. at any level (club, interclub, and beyond).
- Members will not be able to sell projects (as per the project standards).
- Members who are not in good standing by September 30 of the current club year will not complete that year or receive Diary points.

This is enforced at the level the requirement occurs. E.g. Members need to be in Good Standing provincially to be eligible for scholarships.

For a member to return to Good Standing status they must work with their Club to resolve the outstanding issues.

Good Standing Members: Non Complying Expectations
Who	Step 1: Communicate to Member and to Area Coordinator	Step 2: If the Member does not comply
Leader With support from: Area Coordinator	The leader will contact the member (using the rule of two) and communicate the expectations to be in Good Standing and the repercussions if they are not (all above). The leader will also detail why the member is not in compliance and what the path is for them to become compliant: The member will have 14 days to propose a path based on what the outstanding requirement is. It is the responsibility of the leader to support the member as best they can to comply. 4-H Staff will be communicating the timeline on compliance to the member if they are not abiding by the Code of Conduct or Program Agreement.	After 14 days, the club leader will forward communications to the Area Coordinator. The Area Coordinator will evaluate the situation and support the situation. They will add the member's name to a list that is reviewed in regards to registering for provincial programs and eligibility for Scholarships. If the member is actively working towards meeting the requirements of a member in Good Standing, they will be removed from that list when Good Standing is achieved. The Club retains the right to remove the member from the club based on the 14 day timeline. Discretion is required when making this decision.

Payment of project sales cannot be withheld for any reason. Please see Member Payments for more information.

Leaders and members should reach out to their Area Coordinator for support on this. For comments about this section specifically (e.g. changes) please contact Bridget Mahaffey at bridget.mahaffey@4hab.com

CLUBS

This is where the 4-H magic starts! Members will get to know each other, meet families, start projects, and get to explore their communities together! Members will complete their requirements within their clubs and dive into their projects. Below are key components of the club.

The Running of a Club

Clubs must have a minimum of 6 business meetings throughout the club year. A club meeting can be a part of a project day or other designated club activity.

Clubs must endeavor to conduct business meetings using parliamentary procedures, which requires that only 4-H members move, second, and vote on motions during the club year.

An outline for what to cover on the first few meeting of the year is in the appendices

Clubs must vote which activities/events/meetings are mandatory requirements for members to attend– this will be a part of the 70% Participation. Clubs prepare a program plan each year to ensure members and families understand the expectations and plan for the year. Projects will/may have their own mandatory activities that need to be included in the program plan. These need to be voted on by the members as well.

More information on this and the deadline for it is in the program plan section below.

A meeting should consist of five components: member requirements, recreation, business, social, and education.

Reach out to your Area Coordinator if you have questions about this topic. For comments about this section specifically (e.g. changes) please contact Sherry Howey at sherry.howey@4hab.com

The 4-H Season

4-H Clubs set their own program plan to suit the needs of their members and project work. They should keep in mind the 4-H Season as well.

The 4-H season occurs beyond the 4-H Club through programs and events run by district, regions, and province. These programs and events provide opportunities for growth and advancement for members that enrich the 4-H experience.

Some examples of programs and events include: Communication events (Regional and Provincial), which is where members can practice public speaking in front of larger groups and receive feedback on it by judges. Regional shows, where members can show their projects, receive feedback, and see what other people, outside of their club, have been doing.

Details on how to write a Program Plan are in a different part of this document.

Details on the Club Registration process are in a separate section.

For a list of what is happening around the province, check out the 4-H Alberta Events and Programs Calendar and the Scoop.

Reach out to your Area Coordinator if you have questions about this topic. For comments about this section specifically (e.g. changes) please contact Sherry Howey at sherry.howey@4hab.com

Types of club

Each 4-H club offers and operates in different ways that is what makes 4-H unique. Finding projects, schedules, competitions, commitment levels, meeting location, cost, that best meet member and family needs is important. Contact your Area Coordinator to find the right club for you and your family.

Use this 4-H Club Analysis Tool to determine what type of club programming is offered. Members can also use this tool to find a club that best suits their needs and interests

Ratios

	Daytime and Low-Risk Activities		Overnight and High-Risk Activities
	Starting ratio with the Rule of Two (adult : youth)	Ratio for additional participants (adult : youth)	Starting ratio with the Rule of Two (adult : youth)	Ratio for additional participants (adult : youth)
4-H Members / Cloverbuds 6-8 years	2:10	1:5	2:10	1:5
4-H Members 9+	2:30	1:15	2:20	1:10
Senior 4-H members 15+	2:40	1:20	2:20	1:10

*Cloverbuds is the same age group as Cleaver Kids

Image taken from the 4-H Canada's Youth Safety Policy Manual

The Starting Ratio for Daytime and Low-Risk Activities (the first green column above) has to be a minimum combination of 2 Screened and Trained Leaders or 1 Screened and Trained Leader and 1 Screened Volunteer. Adults in the Ratio for additional participants do not have to be screened or trained, however it is recommended.

When Organizing Supervision Ratios, the ratios are based on the youngest members involved. E.g. There are 40 Members in group activity, including several Cleaver Kids (the amount of Cleaver Kids does not impact the ratio) the activity must use the Cleaver Kids (6-8 years) Ratio: 40 members : 2 trained and screened leaders and 6 adult supervisors.

The Starting Ratio for Overnight and High-Risk Activities (the second green column above) has to be a minimum combination of 2 Screened and Trained Leaders or 1 Screened and Trained Leader and 1 Screened Volunteer. Adults in the Ratio for additional participants also need to be made up of Screened and Trained Leaders or Screened Volunteers.

The Rule of Two

The rule of two is defined in the 4-H Canada's Youth Safety Policy Manual.

Image taken from the 4-H Canada's Youth Safety Policy Manual

Reach out to your Area Coordinator if you have questions about this topic. For comments about this section specifically (e.g. changes) please contact Marisa Mellon at marisa.mellon@4hab.com

Club Participation

Club membership minimum is 8 members. Exceptions to this can be made. Contact your Area Coordinator. There is no set maximum for clubs and projects; however members need to be in ratio based on the chart below in order to provide quality mentorship and ensure youth safety.

4-H Canada's Youth Safety Policy Manual: Youth Safety at 4-H in Canada

Club Executive- Youth

The 4-H club executive must be elected by and from the 4-H membership (youth members).

The executive must include, but is not limited to: president; vice-president; secretary and treasurer. These roles are listed with descriptions in the Appendices and in the default constitution. Club Finances are explained in Appendices for treasurers.

For more information about this section contact Susann Stone at susann.stone@4hab.com

Leadership- Adults

All Club Leaders must be elected by the 4-H membership (youth members). Club members can support a designated succession plan if voted upon, however, it must be re-voted each year to ensure fairness.

There also must be a transfer of knowledge and understanding between past and present leaders. This communication and information sharing makes for a successful club.

Details on adult roles, screening and training, and more are in the Leader section of this Manual.

Election process is in the Appendices

Reach out to your Area Coordinator if you have questions about this topic. For comments about this section specifically (e.g. changes) please contact Susann Stone at susann.stone@4hab.com

Taking Attendance

Attendance must be taken at all 4-H events, activities, and functions to ensure the safety of the 4-H Alberta community and to maintain 4-H Member Requirements (e.g. 70% Participation). For safety and insurance reasons, leaders need to track who is at these events, activities, and functions. This includes people beyond the members. The attendance list can track this information if needed or it can be tracked in other ways. That is up to the leaders running the event.

The guardian must sign in and out their child/ member on the attendance sheet (if under 18) OR the member can self sign-in/ out if written consent is given by the guardians on the attendance sheet (see appendices for an example) or just a note from home that is signed and dated.

The attendance process will vary depending on the type of activity and event. Clubs may need to modify their attendance sheet to suit the needs of the activity or events. Having a designated person (or people) taking attendance at a time is expected to ensure everyone is checked in and out and information is relayed properly.

To view and download templates click here: Attendance Sheet Templates - Download to edit
Feel free to modify to suit the needs of the event you are running or your club– not all columns/ information will be needed depending on the program. E.g. If you already have the emergency contacts for your club you will not need to collect that information on the attendance sheet.

Reach out to your Area Coordinator if you have questions about this topic. For comments about this section specifically (e.g. changes) please contact Bridget Mahaffey at bridget.mahaffey@4hab.com

Recruiting more members

4-H Clubs need to have a minimum of 8 members. If you require some marketing ideas and support, 4-H Alberta can provide those resources.

Contact your Area Coordinator for support on this.

Club Communication

- Communication within the club will be done over email, group chats, in-person meetings, online meetings, etc. Tips below.
- The rule of two applies when communicating with members in all methods
- Communication is always best done in person and in groups with someone taking minutes. If in person is not possible a video chat is the next best option.
- Written communication (texts and emails) are great ways to communicate information to a group of people, however, conversations are best had in person.
 - Texts and emails can often be misinterpreted by the absence of tone and facial expressions.
- Successful communication can be challenging at times and it is important to remain professional and patient.

Incident Reporting

Incident reports help 4-H Alberta document injuries, near misses, and accidents. They help manage behaviours and help keep everyone safe and having a good time. The incident report submission process is a vital way of processing a situation, debriefing it, and moving forward.

If you are unsure if you should submit an incident report and are asking yourself, “is this incident bad enough?” Know that it is important for all incidents, big and small, to be reported so 4-H Alberta knows what is happening around the province. This helps 4-H Alberta provide support to help prevent the incidents from happening again. All incident reports are read, taken seriously, and stored through 4-H Canada.

Incident reports must be fact based and contain as much information as possible including witnesses, if applicable. If they are deemed intentionally untruthful they will be considered a breach in the Code of Conduct.

Online Incident Report Submitting \(i-Sight\)

Incident Report Submitting Online Process Explained

A paper copy of the Incident Report is in appendices. Please note that all incident reports need to be submitted online and the paper copy is only meant as a way for people to take notes while away from a computer if needed.

If the incident involves conflict with others, follow the Cooling Down Period: the incident report should be submitted 24 hours after the incident takes place. This will allow time for the people involved to process and debrief the situation before they fill out the incident report. *There will be no cooling down period if the incident is a safety issue or accident. In those cases, an incident report and investigation need to be done immediately.

Code of Conduct Enforcement Process

The Code of Conduct

The 4-H Canada's Code of Conduct is the foundation to an enjoyable 4-H experience that must be upheld by everyone in the 4-H Alberta program or those that use the 4-H Alberta name. This includes all members, their families, leaders, volunteers of any kind, guests, and the rest of the 4-H Alberta community who are a part of an event, activity, and/or function. The Code of Conduct must be upheld whether it has been signed or not. However, it is the expectation that the Code of Conduct is signed by everyone involved in 4-H Alberta. Please click here to review: The Code of Conduct

The Code of Conduct is made available to the community on the 4-H Alberta website, in manuals, record books, posters, at meetings, and more. The 4-H Alberta community must uphold the Code of Conduct.

The following process outlines how 4-H Alberta and the community upholds the Code of Conduct and enforces potential breaches.

Responsibilities

Every 4-H club is autonomous and therefore must manage its own affairs and resolve all of its own internal conflicts. Problems should be handled at the level at which they arise (club, district, and so on). 4-H clubs and beyond are responsible for upholding the image and philosophy of 4-H. They promote the merits of 4-H and provide leadership to the organization. 4-H Clubs, Districts, and Regions can use the 4-H Alberta Code of Conduct Enforcement Process in the event of a conflict that cannot be resolved through basic conflict resolution. Conflict Resolution Resources. If a conflict is not able to be resolved at the level it is at, it needs to be escalated. Resolutions must be respected and abided by clubs, districts, and regions, as well as everyone involved in the conflict. See the Appeal Process if required.

Club Incident Resolution Process

Every effort should be made to solve the incident and prevent further escalation at the level of the incident, however, if unable to resolve at the club level, escalate to the District. All major incidents require an incident report to be submitted (see below).

4-H Alberta guides the process when issuing strikes if there are any breaches in the Code of Conduct. Clubs cannot issue strikes independently.

Step 1: A conflict is identified and reported to a leader. The General Leader is the primary choice unless they are involved in the conflict. If they are involved, the conflict must be reported to a different leader. This leader must be neutral and not personally involved in the conflict. If there are no neutral leaders, then the conflict must be escalated to the district.

Step 2: The leader will assess if it is a minor or major conflict. See below.

Minor incident: a minor incident is a disagreement, miscommunication, behaviour, etc. This can result in submitting an incident report, however, if deemed minor it will be sent to the club to resolve.

Minor conflicts will be resolved through conversation, mediation, and education, not strikes. If the resolution appears to need to include strikes, submit an incident report to get support from a 4-H Alberta Staff prior to issuing strikes.

The leader will resolve the conflict to the best of their ability. Resources are available here. Any parties involved in the conflict can request a mediator to facilitate a resolution. The conflict can be escalated to a Major Conflict (see below) at any time, if deemed appropriate.

- Let all parties have time to prepare (preferably in advance) what they wish to say
- Give each party a chance to rebut once
- Assess the situation and causes of the conflict:
 - A misunderstanding/miscommunication?
 - Lack of understanding of the guidelines or rules?
 - Do you need an outsider's perspective? E.g. Witnesses.
- How can these parties move forward and put this conflict behind them?
 - Moving forward past a misunderstanding/miscommunication that caused a disagreement.
 - Education on what the proper guidelines are and moving past the conflict this created.

Major Conflict: a major conflict is more complex, the content can be more serious, etc. Often breaches of the Code of Conduct take place in major conflicts and strikes will be given as a result.

An incident report must be completed through i-sight for all Major Conflicts. Incident Reports are sent to 4-H Alberta, where staff will provide the club with support.

If strikes are being considered, a vote and assistance from a 4-H Alberta staff will be required. A vote shall be prepared and presented to the adults of the club by the leader. It will include a summary of the conflict, which must include the position of all parties involved. The adults will be given clear instructions on what they are voting on, which will include disciplinary measures according to the Three Strike Rule. A 4-H Alberta Staff will support this process to help ensure confidentiality is maintained.

Step 4: After a conflict is resolved, the leader will communicate the results to the people involved. If strikes were issued, the leader must communicate this to the Area Coordinator so it can be noted on the member's file. 4-H Alberta will send a letter confirming the strike to the person receiving the strike.

Appeals: If the party that is disciplined wants to appeal they can to the level higher. See Appeals for more information.

Confidentiality: a Confidentiality Agreement will be signed by everyone involved in the incident. Information shared with the people in the club about the conflict must be kept to only what is required for the adults to make the final decision. Any unnecessary sharing of personal or confidential information will be considered a breach of the Code of Conduct. If the situation is deemed confidential in nature it must be moved to a higher level to ensure anonymity.

Districts and Regions Incidents Resolution Process

Every effort should be made to solve the situation and prevent further escalation at the level of the conflict, however, if unable to resolve at the level it is at, escalate to the next level. All major conflicts require an incident report to be submitted (see above under Clubs Resolving Conflict).

4-H Alberta guides the process when issuing strikes if there are any breaches in the Code of Conduct. Districts/ Regions cannot issue strikes independently.

Step 1: Situation A. The incident escalated from a club to the District or Region. The escalation will be assessed by a 4-H Alberta staff. E.g. The incident involves all the leaders in a club, an appeal occurs at the club level.

Step 1: Situation B. The incident occurs at the District level.

Step 2: If a breach of the Code of Conduct is suspected, an investigation will be initiated by a 4-H Alberta staff. If no breach is apparent, there will not be an investigation and the submitter will be notified.

Step 3: The investigation will occur:

- See criteria under Step 3 of the Provincial Incident Resolution Process

Step 4: Appeals: If a party that is being disciplined wants to appeal a decision they can appeal to the level higher. See Appeals.

Provincial Incident Resolution Process

Conflicts should be handled at the level at which they arise, every effort should be made to solve the situation and prevent further escalation at the level of the conflict. Below is the process if escalated to the Province.

Step 1: A conflict is received by the Province through the appeal process or incident occurring at a provincial event. Incident reports submitted through i-sight.

Step 2: If a breach of the Code of Conduct is suspected, an investigation will be initiated by a 4-H Alberta staff. If no breach is apparent, there will not be an investigation and the submitter will be notified.

Step 3: Investigation

- Province-wide consistency: a 4-H Alberta staff supports the investigation to provide consistency.
- Neutral Parties will be delegated by 4-H Alberta to investigate.

- All proceedings will be documented.
- Confidentiality:
 - Confidentiality Agreements will be signed by everyone involved.
 - Everyone involved will remain confidential, if requested, except for the 4-H Alberta Staff.
 - Only affected parties will be advised based on their role in the situation.
- All sides of the case will be considered and additional witnesses could be included.
- It is the responsibility of all parties involved to gather all necessary information in support of their position and to present it to the people investigating within the allotted time frame.
- The people investigating will consider all information provided to them. All parties will have an opportunity to submit their version of events and respond to allegations. Response times need to be in the time frame provided.
- The investigation comes to a conclusion based on a majority vote. This conclusion can be singular or multiple options.

Step 4: Outcomes

If there was a breach of the Code of Conduct: see the Three Strike Rule and then Debriefing Incidents.

If there was no breach of the Code of Conduct: see Debriefing Incidents

Three Strike Rule

The Three Strike Rule is used to uphold the Code of Conduct by all levels of 4-H Alberta.

Strikes are based on breaches of the Code of Conduct, not how many incident reports an investigation received on an individual.

Strike 1 is a warning.

Strike 2 is a suspension for 1-3 months. Length of time will be at the discretion of the decision makers. The suspension will be from participation or attendance from all activities (club, projects, events, programs at all levels, etc.). This includes the guardian/parent dropping off at those activities, if suspended.

Strike 3 is removal from a club, district, region, or from 4-H Alberta as an organization. If a guardian/parent is being removed the children will also be removed. A club, district or region can only remove members at the level of the decision making or lower. 4H Alberta may remove members at any level.

If more than one breach of the Code of Conduct occurs, someone could receive more than one strike. If the breach is deemed serious by the investigation, more than one strike can be issued for one breach.

Strikes will also be issued if minor, yet repetitive, harmful behaviours are identified.

If an incident report is deemed intentionally untruthful that action will be considered for a strike.

Timeline: Strikes will remain on one's record for a period of one year per strike. If a person receives three strikes their membership will be removed for a period of three years. This can be at the club, district, or regional levels or from 4-H Alberta.

4-H Alberta reserves the right to remove an individual or family from 4-H Alberta indefinitely for egregious or repetitive acts.

Some examples of reasons for a strike:

- Any form of violence
- Bullying or mistreatment of others (leaders, youth, families, staff, etc.) in any form including cyberbullying.
- Breaches of confidentiality (ex: sharing private information)
- Failure to follow the directions of leaders and staff
- Misrepresentation of 4-H in words, actions, or behaviours
- Retaliatory acts
- Any other actions deemed inappropriate by 4-H Alberta and/or contrary to The Code of Conduct. Please read The Code of Conduct and reach out if you have questions.

4-H Alberta abides by Youth Safety at 4-H in Canada

Debriefing Incidents

Regardless of what is decided, it is important to move forward and work towards positive outcomes. The Code of Conduct is here to make us all enjoy our time with 4-H Alberta and feel safe. All parties involved will be debriefed so we can move forward as a community. This means, anyone who submitted an incident report and those being investigated. Debriefing needs to happen as soon as possible regardless of when the incident happened or when the members involved will return to programming.

If someone has been suspended or been issued three strikes, a debrief or returning interview should take place upon return. This is to follow up with them to ensure they are feeling supported, ready to return, and follow the Code of Conduct again

Appeal Process

Once the investigation has concluded, if a strike or multiple strikes are issued, the person receiving the strike(s) has the right to appeal the decision within 14 days, only if there is strong evidence that:

1. The processes set forth above were not followed by 4-H Alberta; and/or
2. There were facts presented that were not considered.
3. There was proven bias or conflict of interest by the investigation.

An appeal will not be based on public pressure.

Each investigation/conflict has one appeal. The appeal process fee is $300.

This fee will be refunded in full only if both the appeal is granted and the original decision is overturned or revised.

1. 4-H Alberta Staff Member will investigate to determine if there should be an appeal or not. If not, the appeal will be denied.
2. If the appeal is granted, it will follow the same process as the initial investigation with a different Investigation Team.

Before the appeal moves forward, all parties must agree in writing that they will abide by the decision of the Investigation Team and that the decision is final.

Confidentiality

Confidentiality is necessary at every stage of this process. Everyone involved in the process will sign a Confidentiality Agreement. This form will aid in upholding the Code of Conduct and specifically, the following:

- Members of the investigation other than the 4-H Alberta Staff Member will remain confidential.
- The Incident Reporting process and the parties involved is a confidential process and only affected parties will be advised based on their role in the situation.
- Investigations will be done and strikes will be issued, if confidentiality is breached.

Court Actions

All 4-H members, clubs, leaders, volunteers, parents, and committees, by virtue and because of their status as such, agree that any recourse to the law courts of any jurisdiction prior to all rights and remedies as provided in these procedures have been availed and utilized, shall be prohibited.

Further, any such recourse to the law courts as aforesaid shall be deemed by 4-H Alberta to be inappropriate behaviour, enabling 4-H Alberta to suspend and/or remove the said persons from 4H Alberta.

Code of Conduct Enforcement Conclusion

4-H Alberta is committed to helping its clubs, districts, and regions undertake effective Code of Conduct enforcement. 4-H Alberta is dedicated to ensuring the process detailed above is upheld and will follow through with an appeal if and when required.

Branding Expectations and Enforcement

Aligning the 4-H brand across the country builds a clear and cohesive brand for the 4-H movement in Canada that visually incorporates provinces and clubs.

The 4-H clover is so much more than just a logo. It represents the unique and distinct experience you have when interacting with 4-H. Strengthening and aligning the 4-H brand across Canada will help us more clearly define and articulate our role as Canadian leaders in positive youth development. But more importantly, it will support us in maintaining relevance with today's youth.

If a club chooses to not follow Branding Standards, 4-H Alberta will notify club leadership and members via email that they are in breach and refer them to Branding Expectations. Should they continue to not follow approved branding, club funding will be withheld until a resolution is found.

Brand questions can be directed to your Area Coordinators. Should a club have a request, question, or need for alternative 4-H branding, please contact 4-H Alberta at info@4hab.com.

Club Finances

As a club, you will be raising and spending money on everything from learning days, social events, to Achievement Day. All existing clubs have bank accounts which key people will have access to and signing authority for. There are specific procedures and processes to follow around these and it is important to educate your club and all adults who will be making purchases and payments on how the process works.

Details on these are in the Appendices: Club Finances

Reach out to your Area Coordinator if you have questions about this topic. If you cannot find what you are looking for or would like to request changes please contact Bridget Mahaffey at bridget.mahaffey@4hab.com

Club Funding Opportunities

Funding opportunities supported by 4-H Alberta are an excellent way to help your club raise money to cover the costs of club administration and social activities. The funding opportunities listed at the link below have been approved by 4-H Alberta and are available to clubs across the province. More information on club fundraising is on the 4-H Alberta website here: Club Funding Opportunities

Constitution

Each year clubs will adopt their own constitution based on the default constitution. The default constitution has sections that are not editable that uphold this reference guide and the Code of Conduct. The default constitution does however, leave room for clubs to add their own guidelines to suit the needs of their members. The default constitution will be in place until a club formally adopts their own. The Constitution Guidelines will be in the appendices. This is an overview of how to modify, amend, and more a club's constitution.

Downloads - 4-H Alberta > Club Operations > 4-H Alberta Default Club Constitution doc or PDF

Club constitutions are to be sent to Area Coordinators by December 1st each year along with Program Plan and Budget. Information on those below.

Clubs will need to update their constitutions to use the current default constitution by December 1st 2024.

District and Regional Constitutions also need to be shared with Area Coordinators by December 1st each year.

Draft of Constitution Guidelines is in the Appendices

All specific questions regarding the Default Club Constitution should be directed to your Area Coordinators. For comments about this section specifically (e.g. changes) please contact Bridget Mahaffey at bridget.mahaffey@4hab.com

Budget

On a Club, District, and Regional level, a budget is an estimate of income and expenses for a planned set of time which should align with a club's operating year. The club executive and the leader prepare the budget at the beginning of the club year. Please see the sample budget sheet below.

- A budget is determined by looking at how much money is needed for all activities that the club would like to undertake for the year. Refer to the club's program plan for estimated expenditures for activities planned during the club year. It should also take into account the potential or planned revenues that includes the beginning balance of the clubs bank account.

- Check last year’s financial records for estimating what was spent on regular expenses.
- A motion must be made to approve the budget.
- A motion is also needed if an expense is not in the budget or is over the budgeted amount.

Why 4-H Alberta requires a Budget from Clubs, Districts and Regions in order for them to be in Good Standing and therefore receive sponsorship funding in any given year.

- Accreditation with 4-H Canada states: The organization’s financial statements are received and approved by its provincial governing board annually and are made publicly available
- 4-H Alberta wants to ensure that the leadership is sharing budget information with the membership and showing them how to develop, manage and approve a budget
- 4-H Alberta is the holder of the insurance policy for clubs, districts and regions, so if there a misuse of funds or fraud it comes back to 4-H AB to investigate and resolve
- Within 4-H Alberta if there is conflict, often that conflict involves money and if the club, district and region have submitted a budget 4-H Alberta has the information to support the resolution of such conflict.
- Best practice within non profit organizations is to have this information submitted at the beginning of the year so that any red flags can be addressed immediately.

Program Plan

A Program Plan is a written plan or calendar of all programs, events, and activities to participate in during the year. The purpose of the Program Plan is to keep everyone in your Club, District, or Region informed of what is happening and when.

- The Provincial program schedule will be shared on the calendar on the website.
- Regional Program Plans will be shared to the membership via email and on their area of the website. Regions share with the Area Coordinator, Key Leaders, and District Councils.
- Districts share with the Area Coordinator, District Key Leader, and District Clubs.

Early release of program plans by Provincial, Regional, and District will support Clubs and is in the best interest of members. Release dates will begin to move towards the spring before the club year starts for the Province and Regions. Expected adherence to a Spring Release will be for the 2024-2025 club year. They will build upon these Program Plans with their own club activities. When the Club has finished their Program Plan they will give it to their Area Coordinators for review.

- Clubs share with the Area Coordinator, District Key Leader, District Council, and their membership/families by December 1st.

Program Plans must be voted on by the membership. Club members must vote which activities, events, and meetings are mandatory requirements for members to attend. When 4-H clubs are developing their Club Program Plan they should keep in mind any projects. E.g. Livestock have certain requirements for days on feed, funding deadlines, and program registration (District, Region, Provincial).

All members must achieve 70% participation through attendance and involvement in Club approved programming which can include, but not limited to:

- Club Meetings
- Club Activities/Club Events
- Club Workshops
- Project Meetings
- Project Activities/Project Events
- Project Workshops
- District and or regional activities designated as 'Club' activities

4-H Member Changing Clubs

4-H members may transfer from one club to another within the 4-H club year if approved by the receiving club with the documentation done by the Area Coordinator. Area Coordinators have a process that they will follow to ensure consistency across the province. Clubs will hold a vote to decide if the member can change to their club or not. This vote will be by family– one vote per family. There are many reasons for Members changing clubs: sometimes families move or opportunities come up.

The leaders will consider the following with the Area Coordinator’s support:

- The member is in good standing.
- The type of club/ project the member is in enables a straightforward transfer.

The leader from the original club will be requested by the Area Coordinator to write up a summary of the members' accomplishments from the year so far to show their progress on the requirements and projects. If there is any additional information regarding this member that may impact the new club, the leader is expected to share that (conflicts, issues, etc.). This report will go to the Area Coordinator to review prior to sharing with the new club to ensure confidentiality is not breached.

Not all transfers will be accepted. This is primarily due to the complexity of some clubs and projects. This is why the Area Coordinators are consulted in each case and will assess based on the situation.

This process will be used when members change clubs between club years when deemed appropriate. E.g. a member has changed clubs multiple times, conflict in a club, etc.

Contact your Area Coordinator to initiate the process. Reach out to your Area Coordinator if you have questions about this topic. For comments about this section specifically (e.g. changes) please contact Bridget Mahaffey at bridget.mahaffey@4hab.com

4-H Member Living Away

If a 4-H member lives away from home they be allowed to remain active in this club if the member:

1. Has the approval of the general leader and applicable project leader(s)
2. Has the approval of the club and project membership through majority vote
3. Meets all of the basic member requirements including all payments.
4. If any club expectation cannot be met due to extenuating circumstances, acceptable alternatives may be determined and approved by the club.
5. Members must work with their club to choose an appropriate project based on their availability throughout the year so they can fulfill all requirements.

Examples of living away: members at post secondary, shared guardians, health reasons, personal reasons out of the members' control.

Contact your Area Coordinator for support on this. Reach out to your Area Coordinator if you have questions about this topic. For comments about this section specifically (e.g. changes) please contact Bridget Mahaffey at bridget.mahaffey@4hab.com

Non Complying Clubs - Clubs Not in Good Standing

4-H Alberta is here to support clubs and help make the registration and administrative processes as straightforward as possible. There are many reasons why a club may not be able to meet the criteria for an Approved Club and Club in Good Standing. The Area Coordinators, Regions, and Districts will be supporting clubs and following up with them throughout the process.

Clubs need to become approved in order to meet the safety standards set by the province and 4-H Canada, as well as to be insured \(see list under above for criteria\).

Clubs need to be in Good standing to:

- Receive funding
- Run programs, events, or other at club, interclub, and beyond*

- Participate at events and programs at club, interclub, and beyond (requirements must be met at District and Regional levels at all times)*
- If a club is not in Good Standing, the members of that club are not in Good Standing. If Good Standing is not met by the club, the members in the club will not get credit for the year.

*If a club is not in Good Standing it may preclude members from participating at any level.

This is enforced at the level the requirement occurs. E.g. Clubs cannot receive funding if they are not in Good Standing provincially.

For a club to return to Good Standing status they must work with their District, Region, and Area Coordinator to resolve the outstanding issues.

Please see the chart below for the process of how 4-H Alberta, Regions, and Districts are following up with each section of the approval and Good Standing process.

Approved Clubs: Non Complying Expectations
Expectation	Step 1	Step 2: If not completed
All Leaders screened & trained, All Volunteers screened	Clubs that meet approval requirements: If the club has enough leaders/ volunteers to fulfill the ratio/ Rule of Two and all other approval expectations, it will be approved. The General Leader/ Club Registrar will receive the Approval email from the Area Coordinator. If there are any leaders or volunteers still working on their requirements, they will not be able to act in their role until requirements are met. They have 30 days from approval. This will be communicated to them, the leadership, and the membership on club approval via email by the Area Coordinator.	After 30 days, if requirements are still not met by these individuals, Area Coordinators will send an email to the membership to inform them that they are not able to return to their roles until requirements are complete. If that role is vital for the club, a vote must occur. New leaders/ volunteers will have 30 days to complete the screening and training. This cycle will not be repeated.
	Clubs that cannot be approved due to not meeting ratio/Rule of Two: If the club does not have enough leaders/ volunteers to satisfy the ratio/ rule of two, the club will not be approved and incident reports must be filled out when the club meets until those individuals have completed their requirements. This will be communicated to the leadership and membership immediately by the Area Coordinator. <ul style="list-style-type: none"> ● Incident reports can only be filled out for the 30 day screening period. ● After 30 days, the membership will be notified that they need to vote in new leaders/ volunteers ● These new leaders/ volunteers have 30 days to complete the requirements ● This cycle will not be repeated. The individual that did not complete their requirements in 30 days: The Area Coordinator will contact the individual to follow up on status of requirements. An email will be sent to the membership to let them know that they need to find a new leader or volunteer. This individual can continue to work on their requirements while acting as a Supporter.	The Club will then vote in new leaders/ volunteers and those individuals will have 30 days to complete the screening and training. This cycle will not be repeated.
All Fees are paid & received by Nov 15	Area Coordinators will email Club Leadership and Membership to charge them a late fee of $100.00. Extensions or exceptions can be provided for extenuating circumstances if communicated in advance. Contact your Area Coordinator.	Club will not be approved until late fee is paid.

Good Standing Clubs: Non Complying Expectations
Expectation	Contact	Step 1: If not completed	Step 2: If not completed	Step 3: If not completed
Submit: Program Plan, Budget, Constitution, Banking Info	Area Coordinator	Clubs will be reminded of the December 1, 2022 deadline once in the Clubs Approval Email received when the club is approved.	After the deadline has passed, club membership will be notified that the deadline has passed for the specific documents and that these are a requirement for being a club in Good Standing. See above for the requirements and repercussions that will be communicated. 30 days will be given for the club to comply.	After the deadline has passed the club will remain not in Good Standing and the District and Region will be notified that this club is not in Good Standing so they can support the process.
Fulfilling the requirements of the District & Region laid out in their constitutions/ bylaws	Regions and Districts	Club leaders and all membership are notified of expectations, outcomes, consequences, and timeline by email (date depends on Region).	Email is sent to the club's leadership when the club is not complying. A timeline will be established and communicated by the Region or District for the club's leadership to comply. See step three. Email will include Area Coordinator.	If the club's leadership does not comply with the timeline, an email is sent to the club's membership detailing the outstanding requirements and providing an extension for the membership to respond to. The club will remain not in Good Standing until this is resolved. This means the members are also not in Good Standing during this time. Email will include Area Coordinator.
Clubs must uphold the 4-H Canada Code of Conduct and the 4-H Alberta Reference Guide	4-H Alberta Staff	Breaches of the Code of Conduct are reported at through the Code of Conduct Enforcement Process or if required, the Online Incident Report (i-sight) The 4-H Alberta Reference Guide is a tool for the community to use to help guide them. If proper processes and guidelines are not being followed, report at the level it is discovered and a person of authority can use the Guide and associated resources to educate and train. If the Reference Guide is intentionally not being followed, please use the Code of Conduct Enforcement Process and escalate if required.

If this 4-H club decides, by majority secret ballot vote, to split into two or more separate clubs, the club which retains the former meeting location will also keep the original club name and accumulated years of club operation.  - c. The club’s records (historical, financial – including inventory of assets) will be treated in the same manner as the club’s account but retained for 7 years.

Personal Information Protection Act (PIPA) and Canadian Anti-Spam Legislation(CASL)

4-H Alberta must follow the Canadian Anti-Spam Legislation (CASL), which states that we must receive permission to gather personal information, tell you why we are collecting it, and how we will use the information. We will not share with any third party. Clubs, Districts, and Regions who collect personal information must adhere to CASL, ensuring that the 4-H Alberta community's information is not stored on a personal server or on a server outside of Canada.

The Personal Information Protection Act prohibits the release of the 4-H Alberta community's personal information for anything outside of 4-H Alberta's stated purpose. Certain personal information will be released only when permission is given and to the extent that it is reasonably necessary to carry out a specific 4-H program, club or event. Members who are under 18 years old need a legal guardian to release personal information for them. The 4-H Alberta community has the option of opting-out of sharing their personal information at any time.

4-H Staff, relevant leaders (trained and screened) and relevant volunteers (screened) may have access to member information provided, and permission to share information is given by guardians/members in order to run 4-H relevant programs, clubs, and events. 4-H Staff, leaders and volunteers may have necessary information so they have the ability to provide informed and safe programming. The Code of Conduct addresses confidentiality.

PROJECTS

4-H Projects are all about learning, challenging yourself, and having fun! All projects are themed about one or more of the 4-H Pillars:

- Community Engagement & Communication
- Science & Technology
- The Environment & Healthy Living
- Sustainable Agriculture & Food Security
- For more information check out the website

There are clubs that are project specific, for example, a horse club where its members participate in the horse project solely. Other clubs do a variety of projects, these clubs are referred to as multi clubs. They can have multiple projects as long as they have the leaders to support those projects and the members interested in them. It's important for clubs to be flexible. Horse clubs can become multi clubs too if members are becoming interested in other projects. This is a way to keep members engaged. If clubs need support with this, reach out to your Area Coordinator.

If you have a specific project in mind and are in an area of Alberta with several clubs, reach out here and 4-H Alberta will help connect you with the club best suited for you.

4-H projects are led by leaders that have an interest in mentoring youth through hands-on projects. Projects are available to members providing there is a leader to provide a learning experience for growth. Clubs may pick multiple projects to work on at a time depending on what their members are interested in. Please check out the 4-H Project Planning Handbook for more information.

Projects Resources

Record Books are a vital part to all projects. Read their full description in the Member Requirement sections: Record Books. Record books are available in a hard copy, or are downloadable or fillable on the website, www.4hab.com/projects/.

Members are required to complete a record book/insert for every project.

Reach out to your Area Coordinator if you have questions about your project. For more information about the resources contact Susann Stone, Tracy Dietrich, and Madeleine Luft at programs@4hab.com

4-H Project Resource Manuals

4-H Alberta offers over 100 resources that have been developed over the years by volunteer committees, writers, industry specialists, and staff.

There is not an official way to work through the material provided in these project resources. They serve only as guides for what you can build, create, or teach your 4-H members. 4-H Project Leaders do not have to be an expert in the project subject matter. 4-H Project Leaders organize (arrange resources if needed), plan, and ensure members are participating in the activities in the safest way possible.

Where to Find Resources

- Download Resources: Visit www.4hab.com or on your Club Supplies on the Online Registration System (ORS). Check back often for updates to free resources you can download from the 4-H website.
- Print Resources: General Leaders and Club Registrars can order printed resources for projects. At the time of registration, order resources at no cost through the Club Supply tab on the ORS.
- Other 4-H Resources:
 - Fellow 4-H Leaders, Members, and Alumni. Networking is a great tool to find new ideas. Watch for 4-H Alberta leader training events happening in your area.
 - www.4-h-learns.org. On this site maintained by 4-H Canada, you can view and download resources from across Canada and the world at no cost.
 - Community Resources. There may be resourceful people in your community who are willing to share their expertise and knowledge with local 4-H members.
 - Community Organizations. Partner with community groups (youth or service groups), camps, or libraries for learning sessions to add to your project learning and exploration.
 - Online Resources. Find fun and interesting ideas online for how to get creative with your projects. Be sure to use safe and reputable online resources that are of interest to 4-H members.

For more information about the resources contact Susann Stone, Tracy Dietrich, and Madeleine Luft at programs@4hab.com

Project Operating Standards

As a Project Leader, become familiar with 4-H Project Standards, which can be found on www.4hab.com. Project standards help guide 4-H members and leaders as they advance their projects for completion or competition.

Projects such as Beef, Equine, Sheep, and SALTT have 4-H Alberta Project Standards. If the project you are leading does not have written standards provided by 4-H Alberta, this is an opportunity for you and your members to be creative and adapt as you go. If your project does not have an official standard, keep in mind that you are still required to follow 4-H Alberta guidelines and procedures when representing 4-H as a Project Leader. (See 4-H Alberta Reference Guide.)

Project standards guide the operation of 4-H Projects for consistency among clubs across the province.

4-H Alberta Provincial Volunteer Advisory Committees review and guide the updates to 4-H Project Standards.

4-H members and leaders must be aware that clubs, districts, and regions may have additional rules or standards above the 4-H Alberta Project Standards. For more information, contact your 4-H district or region's council or committees, or see your 4-H club's constitution.

Sponsored Project

Some projects 4-H Alberta offers are sponsored. Projects that are sponsored will provide resource workshops, materials, and project operating costs. These details will be agreed upon through an MOU annually.

Examples of sponsored projects are Alberta Standardbred Horse Association and pheasants, but not limited to.

Reach out to your Area Coordinator if you have questions about your project. For more information about the resources contact Susann Stone, Tracy Dietrich, and Madeleine Luft at programs@4hab.com

Member Changing or Adding Projects

4-H members may change or add projects within the club year if approved appropriately.

Initial approval is done by the project leader:

- Why does the member want to change projects? (lack of interest, stress, too much to do, etc.) Is there something the leader, club, other members can do to support them?
- Can the rest of the project be completed in a short period of time/ are they almost done? Can the member be given alternate assignments instead of finishing the project normally?
- If the project leader cannot find a way for the member to change projects then the change will not be approved. The project leader will then do their best to support the member with their project moving forward.
- If the project is already supported by the club and has a project leader assigned to it then it will be an easier addition.

Contact your Area Coordinator for support on this. For comments about this section specifically (e.g. changes) please contact Susann Stone, Tracy Dietrich, and Madeleine Luft at programs@4hab.com

Diaries and Diary Points

The 4-H Diary and Awards of Excellence Program is inclusive to all members in all areas of 4-H Alberta. This program is not based on project or competition results, it is based on participation and involvement at all levels of 4-H Alberta. With the 4-H Diary Program, members earn points for active participation in 4-H Alberta activities at all levels. This is outlined in the Diary.

The 4-H Diary is a record of your entire 4-H year! The 4-H Diary is a place for you to record and celebrate your involvement and participation in 4-H and the community.

Registered 4-H members ages 9-20 as of December 31st of the current Club Year are eligible to complete a Diary for each year that they are a registered member in good standing at all levels of 4-H Alberta.

- Applying for scholarships, bursaries and awards, including those available exclusively to 4-H members and alumni.
- Illustrating your diverse experiences for someone in an interview.

Club leaders must submit Awards of Achievement annually. Awards may only be ordered within the year earned, or up to but not exceeding one year after the date earned.*

If you are applying for scholarships, awards, or need verified points (school applications etc), contact your Area Coordinator to request your most recent diaries to be marked and recorded in the 4-H Alberta system.

If you have lost your diaries and wish to re-record, use the most current diary (listed on www.4hab.com) and re-enter all information. You must find the appropriate leader (not a parent) to sign the corresponding diary. Regardless of the year you are entering, you must follow the rules and guidelines as published in the diary you are filling in.

The rules and guidelines for filling in a diary are posted in each diary. Additional rules or guidelines will be posted on the 4-H Alberta website. Leaders! If you are unsure about how to complete a diary, review the Area Coordinator Diary Training Webinar

Family involvement

When everyone is busy, it just makes sense to belong to an organization that brings the whole family together. 4-H clubs rely on volunteer leadership from each adult and 4-H member – that's how we make things happen. Youth and adults are all part of the 4-H family. Active family participation makes 4-H more fun and meaningful for everyone.

Here are some guidelines to keep in mind:

- Review the The Code of Conduct as every 4-H follows, including family members
- Be on time for meetings, activities or events
- Support of the members and leaders (offer to help organize an event, be on a committee, etc.).
- As per the Code of Conduct in regards to being respectful:
 - Remain professional and respectful during all forms of communication
 - Accept the decision of the majority.

 - Be on time for meetings
 - Pay close attention and cooperate with the requests of the executive.
 - Get involved in committees and projects as an advisor or project leader.

- End of the year:
 - It is the member's responsibility to retain important information from year to year for the club, however, there will always be information that Leaders take care of with stakeholders that needs to be retained year to year.

- All information needs to be stored clearly and concisely so it is ready for the next General Leader. This is integral to the running of a successful club.
- Past General Leaders can stay on as Assistant Leaders if the club members wish to help with the change of leadership/ loss of knowledge.

Clubs will need to maintain a ratio and recruit based on size. One or more assistant leaders are encouraged based on club size. It is recommended to have two or more project leaders for each project offered depending on how many members are participating.

Fee for Service

4-H relies on an active volunteer system. 4-H volunteers are highly valued and are recognized for their essential contribution to the Program. Leaders and volunteers are not paid for their role in clubs. This also applies to all other volunteer roles at 4-H (councils, committees, etc.).

A club, council, or committee may offer a resource person payment, an expense payment, an honorarium or nominal gift. This can be accepted or declined by the resource person. Clubs, councils, and committees must ensure there are clearly defined written guidelines in the regulations and/ or constitution regarding payment and reimbursement of resource people. This should include a process: a motion, approved budget in the minutes, etc.

When planning for a resource person, expectations should be clearly outlined in writing prior to the event or activity and a written agreement should be created and signed (expenses, dates, services, etc.).

Emergency Response Plans

The Emergency Response Plan walks you through what to do if there is an injury, accident, emergency of a variety of kinds and severities. Risk Management in Leader Screening

Content in progress.

Weather

As we know, the weather changes quickly in this province. It is important to check the weather forecast prior to leaving for meetings, events, and programs so the 4-H Alberta community knows it is safe to travel in the current weather. If it is deemed unsafe to travel, meetings should be moved online and any events that cannot be made virtual will need to be canceled.

The 4-H Alberta Community needs to be prepared for the elements when attending outdoor events. When leading outdoor events, leaders and volunteers should be checking the weather frequently leading up to and during the event so the group can be prepared for the weather and the event can be modified or canceled if the weather is looking unfavourable.

If there is an extreme weather event such as hail, high winds, a tornado warning, flooding, etc. seek appropriate shelter as soon as you suspect an extreme weather event is on its way. There are some signs it is coming:

- Have your weather apps with notifications on so you receive alerts, look at the news, etc. Depending on the phone, alerts do come through even when out of service.
- There are signs in the sky and water you can learn about so you can be prepared:

Examples

- Keep your eyes on the sky for unusually dark clouds. Hail and tornado warnings often come from those clouds.
- Is the water around you changing? Becoming faster, changing colour, debris in it, etc. This could be a sign of flash flood.

For more information about this section contact Bridget Mahaffey at bridget.mahaffey@4hab.com

Alcohol, Drugs & Tobacco Procedure

As per the Code of Conduct, the 4-H Alberta community must refrain from using drugs or alcohol during any 4-H youth event. See Alcohol at 4-H for more information.

If alcohol is found or if there is suspected drinking:

- Participants should be given the opportunity to anonymously or voluntarily turn in alcohol, and/or tobacco/tobacco products at the start of the activity for disposal by organizers. Honesty and trust is encouraged. Searches are discouraged. If leaders feel they must do a search, ensure witnesses are present and gain permission from a guardian if possible.
- The offender(s) will be asked to dispose of it. It will be confiscated.
- If a member is found to be intoxicated or exhibiting signs of being impaired, leaders or volunteers (2) will stay with the member until they feel better.
- Disciplinary action will be taken.

If drugs are found or if there is suspected illegal drug usage:

- Participants should be given the opportunity to anonymously or voluntarily turn in alcohol, and/or tobacco/tobacco products at the start of the activity for disposal by organizers. Honesty and trust is encouraged. Searches are discouraged. If leaders feel they must do a search, ensure witnesses are present and gain permission from a guardian if possible.
- If a member is found to be intoxicated or exhibiting signs of being impaired, leaders or volunteers (2) will stay with the member until they feel better.
- Drugs found will be confiscated, the police may be notified, and disciplinary action will be taken.
- Cannabis (akin to alcohol use) is prohibited by members.

Disciplinary action for members

Due to this being a potential breach of the Code of Conduct, an incident report should be submitted when alcohol or drugs are found or there is suspected consumption. This is also the way 4-H Alberta documents all incidents.

When alcohol and/ or drugs are found or there is evidence of them being used at a 4-H event, program, or function, use the three strike approach for members:

1. The first time, members will have the substance confiscated and the member will be removed and sent home as soon as possible. This will involve the leader calling the guardian. The members will not drive themselves home if there is a chance of intoxication:
 - a. If any participant is unable to leave due to being intoxicated and/or exhibiting signs of being impaired they can remain at the event until someone arrives to take them home.
 - b. 4-H members will not receive credit for the event and no refund will be given for the missed programming.
 - c. If the person cannot be sent home until a later time/ day, this person will remain at the event but separated from other members until they are picked up. The rule of 2 must be maintained. Due to this being an unplanned situation, an incident report will need to be filled out if the rule of 2 is not able to be maintained.
 - d. An incident report must be filled out to document this incident and guardians must be informed.
2. If a second violation of the Code of Conduct occurs by the same 4-H Alberta Community member, they will be put on probation by their club (if the incidents have happened at club level) or 4-H Alberta (if the incidents have happened at other programming and incident reports have been submitted through several sources). Counselling may be advised. An incident report must be filled out and guardians must be informed.
3. If a third violation of the Code of Conduct occurs by the same 4-H member they will lose credit for the current 4-H year. If a non-member participant commits a third violation, they will not be allowed to participate at any further 4-H events during the 4-H club year. An incident report must be filled out and guardians must be informed.

Adults are not allowed to consume alcoholic beverages at 4-H youth events, functions, and programs of any kind. This needs to be communicated to all guardians who will be involved in these activities so they do not breach the Code of Conduct. The use of drugs is strictly prohibited. The use of tobacco should be used based on the facilities rules and with discretion as these are events focused on youth.

Incident reports need to be filled out when appropriate. Follow the process for notifications of family or Area Coordinator as well. For more information about this section contact Bridget Mahaffey at bridget.mahaffey@4hab.com

Alcohol at 4-H

As a youth focused organization, alcohol can only be served at special events that are focused on leaders, volunteers, or staff. Example: leader conferences, leader appreciation events, etc. If alcohol is being served it must be controlled: the location must follow the rules of the AGLC. The presence of minors is based on the type of liquor license (Liquor Licensee Handbook). 4-H Alberta recommends that any registered member not handle alcohol at any time.

Submit an incident report if alcohol and/ or drugs are being consumed at a 4-H event, activity, or function.

Casinos, Bingos, and Raffles

Visit the AGLC website for information on applying, the processes, and rules for: casinos, bingos, and raffles. The rules laid out by the AGLC related to casinos, bingos, and raffles must be followed. E.g. Only adults can buy and handle tickets. Please note: Clubs, Districts, or Regions need to apply for their own AGLC license and cannot use 4-H Alberta's license.

Prizes for events must be youth focused and family friendly. If you receive non youth focused or family friendly items donated, e.g. a wine basket, use your discretion.

Fundraising should be youth focused, family friendly, and should involve the members of the club. If opportunities arise that are not, use your discretion. E.g. bartending, cleaning up after a wedding, etc. The club needs to follow the rules of the event and their liquor license, E.g. if minors are allowed or not.

See Alcohol at 4-H for alcohol use at events.

Insurance

4-H Insurance is provided through 4-H Canada. Clubs need to be registered and approved in the Online Registration system to be insured.

For more information about this section contact Susann Stone at susann.stone@4hab.com

Activity Plan

You need to complete an Activity Plan for:

- Beyond the Club (when more than one club is involved).
- Overnight
- Anything high risk (if you have to sign an additional waiver to participate)

Activity Plans need to be submitted two weeks prior to the event for it to be approved on time.

Completing an Activity Plan gets you thinking about the planning required around the event you are running: supervision, first aid, locations, participants, etc. This is a great way for you to prepare for the event!

Districts

This section is still in progress and small changes may be made in the next month.

In Alberta, there are between 50-57 4-H Districts. 4-H Alberta Districts often follow the municipal county geographical areas. District 4-H Councils have representatives from their area. Districts provide workshops, fun days, and competitions for members.

District Councils are individual entities that require a representative from each club in the district to sit on the council. Each District Council must elect or appoint representation to the Regional Council that they geographically belong to.

They may also:

- Initiate and coordinate events and activities for the benefit and enjoyment of 4-H members and leaders in their district such as: communication competitions, workshops, fun days and clinics.
- They also set expectations, rules or policy for these events and activities
- Collect fees from clubs on behalf of the Regional Council for insurance and offsetting costs for district activities and regional events.
- District Councils select Key Leaders who assist and provide support for clubs and leaders in the district. They select Key Members who act as a resource to clubs and members in the district.
- District Councils ensure communication between clubs, the district and regional councils is maintained. This includes information sharing and forwarding concerns and recommendations to the regional councils

Districts in Good Standing

To be in Good Standing a District must:

- Uphold the 4-H Alberta Reference Guide, the Code of Conduct, and support positive communication between clubs, Districts, Regions, and the Province.

- Participate at a Regional level and fulfill the expectations laid out by the Region.

- Have everyone on the executive committee screened and trained (those under 18 can inquire with their Area Coordinator about what level of training and screening is appropriate for their age). Members do not need to be screened and trained.
- Fees have been paid and received by the required regional deadline
- Information submitted to the Area Coordinator by December 1.
 - Program Plan
 - Budget
 - Constitution
 - Banking information for Direct Deposits (on the ORS)

- Meeting minutes and Agenda (agenda if requested) for district meetings must be distributed to keep the community and Area Coordinator informed.

Districts need to be in Good Standing to:

- Receive additional funding
- Districts cannot run District events and programs, no activity plans will be approved*

*This may preclude members from participating at any level

This is enforced at the level the requirement occurs. E.g. Districts cannot receive funding if they are not in Good Standing provincially.

Please see the chart below for the process of how 4-H Alberta and Regions are following up with each section of the good standing process.

Key Leader Job Description

4-H Key Leaders are experienced 4-H Leaders who support the leaders in their district. They use their expertise to guide and enrich the 4-H community in their area with the support from 4-H Alberta. As a 4-H leader, the Key Leader in your district can be your go to person for questions and support. As all leaders, Key Leaders must be screened and trained.

Full Key Leader Job Description is in the Appendices

District Council

Each club must elect or appoint the number of representatives determined in the district council constitution. This is chosen every year at the start of the club year when the executive and leaders are chosen for the club. It is recommended that at least 1 member and 1 leader represents each club.

District Councils have a minimum of 2 clubs to be considered a district council.

Within the District, Clubs must:

- Elect representatives, as indicated in the local District Council constitution, to attend all district council meetings.
- An alternate will be elected to represent the club if one of the representatives is unavailable.
- Pay appropriate District 4-H Council fees.
- Abide by the district constitution to be a complying club
- Attend all district council meetings
- Strive to participate in district events (hosting and organizing). This one is not mandatory.
- Clubs that do not comply with these requirements will be reprimanded based on the section called Non Complying Clubs in the district constitution.

District Executive

This executive is normally made up of a president, vice president, treasurer, secretary, and often a past president. As of fall 2022, it is recommended that Districts and Regions have a Member representative on the executive. This will be considered a part of the normal executive board in the fall of 2023.

District Representatives

As your club representative for the District Council, you are responsible for ensuring that your club knows about district events and competitions. This is your opportunity to bring the concerns of your club to the District Council and have your voice heard. As a voting member, you represent the voting interest of your entire club— ensure you know how your club would vote on certain interests by ensuring your club is aware of the issues you will be voting on. A few simple ways to do this is to read your District Report and upcoming District Council meeting agenda at club meetings, discuss events and ask members what they'd like.

District, Regional Funding

In partnership with donors and corporate partners, 4-H Alberta is able to offer funding for various 4-H member experiences and opportunities at club, district, and regional levels. Each funding opportunity has different requirements and may vary from year to year. Clubs are encouraged to watch for deadlines for applications on the 4-H website and in the monthly newsletter.

Regions

This section is still in progress and small changes may be made in the next month.

There are seven regions in the province, South, Calgary, East Central, West Central, Northwest, Northeast and Peace that are supported by 6 Area Coordinators.

Each region has a Regional Council. They are considered individual entities, with some being registered societies. They follow a default constitution for province wide consistency and make their own additions to ensure it suits their Region appropriately. There are 6-11 districts in each, depending on region.

Regions play a vital role in the province, below are some of the services they offer to the community:

- They may collect fees from District Councils to support Regional programming.
- They support Districts in holding Clubs in Good Standing (see Club in Good Standing and Non Complying Clubs)
- They ensure Districts remain in Good Standing (see Districts in Good Standing)
- They plan events, activities, and competitions for their districts
 - Initiate and coordinate events and activities for the benefit and enjoyment of 4-H members and leaders in their regions such as: communication competitions, camps, fun days, clinics and workshops.
 - They set expectations, rules or policy for these events and activities.
- They select/elect representatives to various Provincial Advisory Committees (detailed below).
- This includes information sharing and forwarding concerns and recommendations to 4-H Alberta and the Board of Directors.
- They assist in the flow of communication between the District Councils and 4-H Alberta.

Area Coordinators often circulate the Agenda in advance of Regional meetings and minutes after to the regional membership on behalf of the regional council executive.

Regional Executive

This executive is normally made up of a president, vice president, treasurer, secretary, and often a past president. As of fall 2022, it is recommended that Districts and Regions have a Member representative on the executive. This will be considered a part of the normal executive board in the fall of 2023.

- Submit information to Area Coordinator:

 - Budget
 - Constitution, Policies and or By Laws
 - Banking information for Direct Deposits (on the ORS)

SCHOLARSHIPS

General Information & Structure of 4-H Alberta's Scholarship Program

Because of the generous support of our donors, every year 4-H Alberta offers nearly $300,000 across nearly 250 scholarships that our youth receive in support of post secondary endeavors. 4-H Alberta is the only organization offering scholarships exclusively to 4-H Alberta students, which is why donors establish scholarship funds with the organization.

Scholarship funds are established for a variety of reasons, but most often:

- To commemorate the passing of an individual and honour their memory
- From an estate bequest, from a donor who believes in 4-H Alberta's impact
- As a result of a team fundraising effort (ex: Clubs, Districts, Regions)
- From sponsors who wish to support students directly with community investment

4-H Alberta holds nearly $1M in scholarship funds, in charitable donations from individuals, sponsorships from corporations and contributions from Foundations or external groups. Each type of contribution has its own set of guidelines as to how it must be managed by 4-H Alberta, to align with Federal and Provincial regulations for charitable organizations.

As a new non-profit organization, for the 2021 scholarship cycle, 4-H Alberta has introduced a tiered scholarship program that is typical of most post secondaries and aligns with best practice to include 3 types of scholarships, providing accessibility to donors of all levels.

Types of named scholarships:

- Endowment - Established with a minimum contribution of $25,000, the principal remains intact, to offer scholarships from the fund in perpetuity
- Limited Term - Established with a minimum contribution of $5,000, the fund depletes over time with annual expenditures, as per the direction of the donor
- Annually Funded - Established with a minimum contribution of $500 to $10,000, with a 5-year pledge requested and the donor provides contributions annually
- General 4-H Alberta Scholarship Fund - Any contribution under the minimum thresholds can be directed here in support of 4-H youth province-wide

*Note that the minimum disbursement for all types of scholarships is $500/year

- Give an overview of the 4-H program, its benefits, how a 4-H club operates

- Communicate up to date fee information: this will vary on Club, District, and Region. There are 4-H district council fees (ask your Key Leader) and project related costs (varies). Some clubs have a club registration fee and other clubs rely on fundraising activities to operate their club. You may be able to set your club fee at the meeting.
- Clubs prepare a program plan each year during the first few meetings to ensure members and families understand the expectations and plan for the year. Projects will/may have their own mandatory activities that need to be included in the program plan. These need to be voted on by the members as well.
- Clubs must have a minimum of 6 business meetings throughout the club year. A club meeting can be a part of a project day or other designated club activity.
- Clubs must vote which activities/events/meetings are mandatory requirements for members to attend– this will be a part of the 70% Participation.
- A meeting should consist of five components: member requirements, recreation, business, social, and education.
- If enough interest is shown, start the club registration process (for 2022 registration year). See Club Registration for more information.

Clubs must endeavor to conduct business meetings using parliamentary procedures, which requires that only 4-H members move, second, and vote on motions during the club year.

Constitution Guidelines

General:

- Clubs need to use the Default Constitution as their template. The Default Constitution was modified slightly in 2022 and Clubs will need to adopt this new Constitution by 2024.
- A Club's Constitution must be shared with the Area Coordinator by December 1st each year for Clubs to remain in Good Standing.

Process for amendments:

- This constitution will be reviewed by the club each year.
- It is recommended that amendments are made once per year at a selected regular club meeting.
- Notice of amendments must be given at the previous regular club meeting. The suggested amendments need to be provided to the members in writing (email or print).
- A three-quarters majority is required to approve any amendment to the constitution.
- The date of amendment will be recorded at the beginning of the constitution.

Nominations:

Nominations can be done in informal and formal ways. Formally, clubs can have nominating committees who approach people to run for executive positions prior to elections.

- The committee looks at the responsibilities of the executive positions to be filled and decides who would be strong candidates for each position.
- The committee approaches the individuals about letting their name stand for the executive position. The committee members should fully understand the roles, responsibilities and time commitment of the executive positions so they can answer any questions from the potential candidate.

Informally, members can approach others who they feel would be a good fit for certain positions and see if they are interested. They can then discuss the role using information found above or speak with someone who held the position previously for more information.

Election Night:

- If the Club uses a nominating committee, the Chairperson of the Nominating Committee reads and moves the adoption of their report at election time.
- Whether a nominating committee is used or not, the Chairperson of the 4-H meeting calls for nominations from the floor by saying, "Nominations are now open for the office of _____." If a nominating committee is used, the Chairperson should say, "For (office), _____ has been nominated by the Nominating Committee. Are there any further nominations for (office)?"
- A member can nominate by saying, "I nominate (name)." No seconder is required.
- The Chairperson of the 4-H meeting says, "Are there any further nominations?", and pauses.
- If no further nominations are put forward, the Chairperson repeats, "Are there any further nominations?", and pauses.
- For the third time, the Chairperson asks, "Are there any further nominations?" and pause.
- The Chairperson asks, "Will someone move nominations close?" or states, "As there are no further nominations, I declare nominations are closed."
- The above steps are repeated for each executive position that needs to be filled.
- If nominations are moved, closed and seconded before other members have had the chance to make their nominations, the premature motion is ignored. More nominations are accepted.

- Once all nominations are completed, the earlier motion to close nominations can be voted upon without making and seconding the motion.

Voting

Elections and Motions:

- In an election, if only one nomination is put forth for a position, a vote is not required. The individual is elected by acclamation.
- If more than one name is put forward for an office, a vote must be taken.
- If the Chairperson of the 4-H meeting is nominated for a position, they must ask another member to take over the Chairperson's role during that portion of the election process.

Voting Methods:

- Show of hands - the most commonly used method of voting in 4-H Clubs. For voting during an election, the candidates are asked to leave the room and the Chairperson asks for a show of hands for votes on each individual. The Chairperson makes the count and announces the result.
- Ballot - secret votes on paper which are used for controversial motions and for elections. Someone must prepare, distribute, collect, and count the votes. The Chairperson would be a good person for this role.
- Voice - used at large meetings on routine matters that are unlikely to cause an argument. The Chairperson says, "All those in favour say "Aye." "All those opposed, say "Nay." The Chairperson judges the vote by the volume of sound. This method is not commonly used for 4-H elections.

Determining the Outcome of a Vote:

- In elections, the candidate who gets the most votes wins the office.
- Tied election votes may be broken by the Chairperson if they have not already voted, by taking the vote again to determine if the tie can be broken, by flipping a coin or another method determined by the Club.
- Generally, a simple majority (1/2 of the voting members present plus one) in favour of a motion passes the motion. Therefore, a tied vote defeats a motion.

Voting Rights of President:

The Club should decide on the voting rights of the President and put the decision in their bylaws.

Two methods are recommended:

- The President votes on all issues.
- The President does not vote except to make a tie (which defeats the motion, if the President deems it necessary) or to break a tie.

Type 1 Response

Situation can be managed with resources at hand

Minor Injury that does not require more than basic first aid (cuts and scrapes, sprains), simple altercation that can be resolved with communication and/or behaviour modification.

1. Ensure the safety of the group. 1 leader or volunteer assumes responsibility for the group, 1 leader or volunteer stays with the patient/situation while remaining in the same area to maintain the rule of two.

2. Attend to the situation at hand: provide first aid or talk to the parties involved in the altercation
3. Fill out an incident report depending on the severity of the situation. At this type, the submission of an incident report is the necessary communication to the Crisis Management team.

Type 2 Response

Additional resources and support are needed such as additional leaders or volunteers, guardians, or possibly calling emergency services.

1. Ensure the safety of the group. 1 leader or volunteer assumes responsibility for the group, 1 leader or volunteer stays with the patient/situation while remaining in the same area to maintain the rule of two.

Reach out for additional support to help maintain proper ratio from other leaders and volunteers if required.

Club Finances

Finance Terms

Bank Reconciliation: The process of comparing and matching figures from the club's accounting records against those shown on a bank statement (mail or online).

Bank Statement/ Financial Statement: A written or online document issued by a financial institution outlining an account's transactions including deposits, withdrawals, interest earned or service charges.

Budget: A plan for spending money. More details here.

Cheque/ Checks: A written order directing a bank to pay money to the person that the cheque is made out to. Cheques need to be signed by two people with signing authority.

Club Dues: A charge or fee for membership. These are collected during Club Registration.

Deposit Slips: An itemized slip showing the exact amount of paper money, coin, and checks being deposited to a particular account.

Expenses: Money spent to carry out the activities of the organization. Expenses are approved through the club budget, and are paid for out of the club's bank account. An expense can be reimbursed by a motion during a club meeting if not in the budget.

Financial Report: A formal record of the club's financial activities. This should track where money is going (in and out of the account). We recommend using a shared spreadsheet (more information and support coming soon). Financial Reports should be audited at the end of each club year by an external auditor. Audits are not a pass or fail process, they are just to help educate treasurers on how to improve moving forward.

Interest: A fixed charge for lending or borrowing money. For example, when you open a savings account, the bank will pay you to keep your money on deposit at their bank, and interest is the payment you receive. If you need to borrow money from the bank, you will pay interest to the bank for the use of the money.

Receipt Book: A receipt book provides a Treasurer with the forms necessary to supply written confirmation of a payment made. A receipt book typically has two copies of each receipt, one copy to be kept by the person paid, one to be given to the payer. A receipt generally includes the payer's name, amount, date, and reason for payment. We recommend clubs purchase a receipt book so they are able to issue receipts (carbon less duplicates). These can be purchased online or often at local office supply stores.

Signature Card: A client signs a signature card when they open an account at a financial institution. It is what identifies the depositor, which is why it is important for these cards to be filled in and resigned every year.

Signing Authority: Members or screened leaders/ volunteers who are authorized by the bank to sign checks. See Signature Card for more information. Signing authority must be set up within two weeks of the member/ leader/ volunteer being voted in for that role. Once set up, the member/ leader/ volunteer must communicate that back to the executive.

Treasurer's Monthly Report: A written report, outlining the club's monthly financial activities, including the club's balance, income, and expenses.

The role of the treasurer

- Must be a Member in Good Standing
- Must have a guardian who is screened
- Contact the bank that holds the club's accounts and fill in new signature cards. Each club must have at least two authorized signatures.
 - Any 2 of the president, vice president, secretary or treasurer will sign all cheques.
 - No two members from the same family will sign the same cheque.
 - Bring meeting minutes to the bank to show who the executives/ signing authority is.
- Obtain the club's receipt book and cheque books from the previous treasurer.
- New cheque books can be ordered from the bank and receipt books can be purchased online or at a general store.

- Process expenses (see below for details)
- Write out receipts to members for their yearly dues and any other money you receive from them.
- Fill in deposit slips (from the bank) for all income, and deposit these.
- Prepare a budget with your club leader and club executive. Present the budget to the entire club for approval. After approval has been received, ensure that all committee chairs are aware of their budget for their committees' planned activity.
- Send club dues to the District Council.
- Keep records up-to-date.
- Prepare a Treasurer's Monthly Report for each meeting.
- Treasurer's Monthly Reports are to be shared at every club meeting (verbal and printed)
- Complete a bank reconciliation (see Important Terms) when the bank statement and cancelled cheques arrive in the mail (can be viewed online). Keep the bank statements and cancelled cheques together for future reference. These should be stored for seven years (passed on to future treasurers).
- Know when to transfer funds to an account that earns interest.
- Stop payment of lost cheques or stale dated cheques.
- Know what to do with club funds if the club becomes inactive. See Clubs in Hiatus.
- Prepare a Financial Report for the end of the club year. Complete Treasurer's portion of the club's Year End Summary in the Secretary's Record Book.
- Prepare a financial statement for review at the end of the year.
- Ensure that your club appoints someone to review your books, such as leaders, bankers, accountants. (eg: two adults not related to the Treasurer.) See the club constitution to determine if it names who the reviewer(s) must be.
- Have records reviewed before the club's Annual Meeting.
- Maintain the club inventory (list of items the club owns).

Bank accounts

All transactions must be done through the club's bank account and not done through personal bank accounts. If there is not already a bank account operating in the club's name, it is the responsibility of the Treasurer to open one.

Reconciliation

Bank reconciliation is the process of comparing and matching figures from the club's accounting records against those of the bank's. The bank's records will be sent to you in the form of a monthly account statement, which should match your Treasurer's Monthly Report. Here's how to go about reconciling:

1. The bank sends a club statement once a month, along with a copy of the cancelled cheques. The first item on the statement is the closing balance of the month prior, followed by a list of income (deposit slip) or withdrawals (cheque issued).
2. If you find that a cheque has been issued but is not on the bank statement, you know that there is an outstanding cheque, which will likely appear on the next statement.
3. Bank statements and cancelled cheques should be filed away for seven years.

Reimbursement/ expenses

- Must be in the budget OR by a motion in club minutes
 - If the expense is under the amount approved then it can just be reimbursed.
 - If the expense is over what was in the budget or approved in the minutes then a new motion needs to be made for that additional expense.
- If it is a last minute expense (it is not in the budget or club minutes) and you do not have a quorum at that time you will have to wait until the next meeting to get the expense approved and get reimbursed.
 - Approvals can happen over email or group chats. As long as motions are member led and quorum is met.
- Reimbursements are processed when the receipt is given to the Treasurer. The Treasurer then writes a cheque to the person.
 - The paper trail is the budget or the motion in the club minutes. No additional paperwork is needed.
 - Reimbursements must be made as soon as possible
 - Paid by cheque
 - If the person seeking a reimbursement does not have the receipt they can fill out a Lost Receipt Form. This replaces the receipt as documentation and the Treasurer can then write a check.
- It is the recipient of the reimbursement's responsibility to deposit the check. It is best practice to resolve reimbursements in 6 months. Check out guidelines here. If a cheque becomes stale dated, the club will vote on if it will be reissued.

Member payments

Content in progress.

Project finances

- If the Club Budget has allocated money to Projects or the Projects have their own money through fundraising, etc. then project members can make motions and can approve expenses independently. If this is not the case then the Club will approve expenses for the project members as a whole.
- When allocating money to projects, Clubs need to divide money based on member participation.
- When fundraising, consider your community and work as a whole club, not separate projects.
- Member's projects are being sold directly to them and so checks need to be made out to them directly.

Other tips

- Keep good records
- Keep relevant email correspondence with banks and funders so you can pass it on to the next Treasurer, General Leaders, etc.

Older version: Treasurer Resource Book

Direct Deposits: Club, District, and Region payments

Payments for all clubs, districts, and regions are done through direct deposits as of October 2022. This process needs to be set up through the Online Registration System and is required for Clubs to be in Good Standing.

Conflict Resolution Resources

Avoiding Conflict

1. Review the Code of Conduct as a group (General Leaders/ Club Registrars can check who has signed it online through the Club Report), become familiar with it, and uphold it.
2. Review your constitution as a club (or District and Region) each year with your new membership.. The Constitution must include the Default Constitution and additions beyond this should be simple and inclusive. Clubs should refer to the provincial project standards and any regional. district and or interclub standards. Clubs are not required to add additional standards.
3. Become familiar with the 4-H mission and vision, review it with the club and uphold them.
4. Program information and expectations should be outlined to the member's family at the start of the 4-H year.
5. Separate your role as a volunteer from any personal business. This avoids the perception that you are in a conflict of interest. Be a positive role model.
6. Practice a code of conduct based upon the purpose and philosophy of the 4-H program.
7. Keep confidential and sensitive information confidential. Protect the integrity of the people concerned.
8. Always keep the needs and safety of the members first.

Dealing With Someone Who Is Angry

Source: Leader Guide 2015

Acknowledge their feelings.

"I can see this is a problem for you." Don't say "I understand how you feel". You get angry sometimes too. You need to recognize that this is truly how the person feels at that point. This will give them the message that you are receptive to their situation.

Keep paraphrasing the facts.

Angry people spout a lot of phrases. Continue to just focus on the facts (for example who is involved, when this took place and what happened).

Don't get caught up in their behaviour.

Sometimes angry people display aggressive behaviour. If you feel that you are not in danger and that the person will not become abusive, then ignore the physical behaviour (for example talking with their hands, facial expressions). If you are fearful that the person will harm you, then exit the situation as soon as possible. Let the person cool off before you continue to discuss the problem.

Handle the verbal "stuff".

Personal attacks, profanity, sarcasm, exaggeration - we tend to let our emotions run our thoughts. Try to ignore all the "stuff" and focus on the facts. This will also help you to stay on track and not be distracted by the "stuff". However, if you do not tolerate attacks or profanity, again, exit the situation and approach the person again after they have had time to control their anger.

Focus on the solution rather than the problem.

Let's face it, the problem is in the past. Let's try to keep moving forward. This may mean making amends or putting something in place so that the next time you encounter the situation you have a method of dealing with it.

Tips on addressing conflict in a club

Source: Leader Guide 2015

Conflict is a normal part of life. Healthy conflict can lead to positive changes in personal relationships and organizations. Negative conflict can, however, be very destructive and can sap energy from a group.

The most important idea for you to remember in resolving conflict in your club is to remain neutral and try to uncover the cause of the conflict. When you understand the cause of conflict, you can begin to address how to resolve it.

Small conflicts in your club can indicate larger problems. Always seek the cause. Conflict is usually caused by misunderstandings, personality clashes, differences in values or goals, unclear responsibilities, lack of resources or change.

Some conflicts can be avoided by being proactive, that is, by discussing potential areas of conflict in an open and honest manner, before the conflict arises. Conflict resolution is not about making people happy. Conflict resolution is about effectively putting an issue to rest, so that it does not keep arising. When we resolve conflict there is no clear "winner" or "loser". It takes common sense, patience and practice to effectively help people in conflict.

Remember that conflict is normal and cannot be avoided. If constructively managed, it can create growth and development in people and groups. Use open communications in conflict resolution to help define problems and discover solutions.

Both parties need to state their problems. Hear them out. As the neutral person, look for areas of agreement. If you are not neutral, find someone who is. It will make the conflict worse if you are not seen as a neutral mediator. When you are trying to develop a plan of action, remember that you can only request behaviour changes. You can't change another person's attitudes, perceptions or personality.

To begin to resolve conflicts you will need to:

- Stay calm and try to keep the group calm.
- Clearly define the problem.
- Try to draw out feelings and meanings.
- Stay neutral.
- Be creative in seeking solutions.
- Propose a joint problem solving approach.
- Help the group look for an active solution where everyone wins.

Don't try to "save" the group. Allow them to work out their conflicts themselves as much as possible.

To manage conflict effectively, you need to:

- Describe issues clearly.
- Clarify what is being said.
- Paraphrase to confirm understanding.
- Analyze situations.

- Support others.
- Ask others what they are hearing.
- Listen responsively and attentively.
- Offer relevant information.
- Suggest alternatives.
- Accept other points of view.
- Avoid explaining the other's behaviour.

Be easy on giving "advice".
